The Canadian Red Cross Society

The Canadian Red Cross Society appeals to the people of Canada to give of their time and money in aid of the war effort. In the course of a few weeks 32,000 men from this Dominion will have crossed the English channel to take their places beside our gallant allies in the trenches. The Red Cross Society of France. These soldiers will be called upon to undergo many hardships; they will have to face the elements and many of them will fall on the field of honor.
It is only right that those who are living should do their part in the war. The whole world is being tested and those who are being tested should give out of the largeness of their hearts that much of the suffering and discomfort can be alleviated.

The people of Canada have contributed to the funds of the Red Cross Society but the society is still in need, not only of money, but of comforts and surgical appliances and these will be supplied by the Canadian Red Cross Society of nations. Continue. Not only is this society called upon to provide for the Canadian soldiers now on Sallieway Plain but the men on duty in the country have been asked after so many years of war to take up the arms and soldiers at the front.

War and battle are not fought as they were in the days of Napoleon when great conflicts were decided in a few hours. Today the war only extends over miles. Today the soldiers are engaged in a long battle with the millions and battles wages for weeks and sometimes months while 100 miles is not considered a long battle.
Soldiers are called upon today to endure continual hardships which would almost appear the humanity had been eliminated from modern warfare by the use of liquor is apparent to all.

Our aim will be to deal with the question of all the difficulties which we have in The Pass, and we are convinced that we can convince every reasonable man and woman that the only method of victory is in prohibition. Our object is to fight the battle of life to stand for a dry town, a dry province, and world-wide prohibition. We are against the traffic which blights the honesty, which pollutes, which destroys character. We believe that good people of Alberta will again demonstrate to the people of Canada that the sun province leads all others in the matter of reform, and for this reason we have devoted largely upon the Red Cross Society to do much in the way of providing the soldiers with every article of comfort, including medicines, surgical appliances, surgical diseases and save human life. The society cannot hope to do this unless the people as a whole realize their responsibility and duty to estimate of this great

While the governments of the different allies have done their best to meet the needs of the troops in the field, it has been found that it is impossible to supply the extra demand made upon them and it has therefore fallen to the citizens of the countries to come forward and help in the matter of comforts, surgical appliances, hospitals, nurses, doctors, etc. which have been developed largely upon the Red Cross Society to do much in the way of providing the soldiers with
every article of comfort, including
medicines, surgical appliances, surgical diseases and save human life. The
the people as a whole realize their

For the past four weeks the French, British and Serbian soldiers, to say nothing of the remnant of the gallant Belgian army, have been fighting under the most appalling conditions of heat and humidities. They have been continually uprooted. Yet they have not complained.
They are bearing all this misery and suffering that the arms of Britain, France and Belgium may be victorious. We can see our gratitude to those brave men.

Every man, woman and child in Canada were to give one dollar for the Red Cross Society. This sum, when multiplied by the number of soldiers could be used in maintaining hundreds of lives and bringing comfort to millions of brave soldiers who are ready to lay down their lives for the freedom of their native land. We can see that a sum could be used to what more worthy object could such a sum be given? The lives of our own men are valuable to us, the victory of our arms is vital to our very existence. The welfare of our shoulders deserves the responsibility of doing our share in making the existence of our brave soldiers as pleasant as circumstances will permit and in saving every life that is humanly possible to save.

Mr. J. K. Osborne, whose family is familiar to Canadians, writing recently to the Canadian Red Cross Commissioner in London, says: "As Canadians, we are bound to do our best to help the Red Cross Society. We are not only the best equipped to help the Red Cross Society, but we are the best equipped to help the Red Cross Society in the world.

The well known lines of Rudyard Kipling may well be altered today to read: "For east is east and west is west and never the twain shall meet." From the far flung western prairies, from the distant hamlets of the Yukon, from the quiet villages that nestle in the valleys by the St. Lawrence river, from east and west the hearts of the people are going out to help the Red Cross Society. From our gallant allies who are ready to give their lives for the undying glory of the empire. By the money they send and the supplies they make the burden of a man will be lightened and made more bearable.

The Canadian Red Cross appeals for money, for comforts, socks, mullers, cap, helmet, surgical appliances, etc., etc., etc. These articles will be sent to the Street, East, Toronto, Canada.

The Mudlark's Song

(During the first week in January of the year 1914, in the village of the Gas Hills, in the valley of the Bear River, the continued heavy rain caused a great amount of mud to settle in the vicinity.)

We have left the land of sunshine, We have left the land of snow,
We have left the land of England And lay the Kaiser low.

Yet we miss the Pine tree swaying But still we have one comfort,

"Tis the old "darned" "Salsbury Mud."

We hear the robins singing
"Tis the old "darned" "Salsbury Mud."

But the skies are dull and heavy

And it's raining most the time;

It's raining most the time;

For what will Kaiser do?

So we'll sing the Mud song,

And we'll sing it through,

And we'll sing it when we're through,

What Canadians can do!

Patriotism and Production

"Patriotism and Production: The Duty and the Opportunity of the Canadian Farmer." This is the heading under which the Canadian Department of Agriculture announces that it will hold a series of agricultural conferences throughout the various provinces of Canada.

Even though the war commenced, it is evident that the master of food supplies was bound to come more and more into prominence as a question of great importance to the empire, and the hour of settling opportunity and obligation has at last come to the Canadian farmer. We believe that the year 1915 should be characterized by a wealth of productive greater than ever before, but just in what directions and how far has not yet been determined.

The specialists who have been studying conditions at large will have valuable information to place before farmers. Dates and places of conferences will be announced later.

Replies to Passburg "Grouch" Passburg, January 18, 1915.

To the Editor,
DR. SIE: —I read an item in your paper concerning the "Grouch" of Passburg. "Grouchings." The writer of that piece was either ashamed of himself or his name, as his name did not appear at the foot of the article. We suspect who he is. He writes of our Blairstmore friends calling us "AFeeling People." I and others in Passburg have friends in Blairstmore, and we have heard of a Passburg folk being called "Grouchies" before. It must be that writer's friends in Blairstmore judging the rest of us by him. They should meet the other people in Passburg, and they would find us not so strange. We are like most other communities — we have our share of kickers, who do nothing for the community themselves and try to prevent others from doing so. The writer of that article wilfully misrepresented the facts. The meeting was held in a well lighted public room, with some others besides trustees present. It was held there for the trustees convenience. The hall was not open to the public until after the meeting ended. There was no non-conversation, as everybody knows a man entering a barber shop, etc., is nothing uncommon. That ratepayer did not ask for any information as to the business, and it could not be expected of any trustee that they would answer such questions continually without an answer. The trustees have always answered the questions put to them, but the growers do not always answer the questions asked them in return. To some extent we reap whatever we sow, and the kickers and growers will get their hands back a thousand fold some day. That's what the Passburg grub will be looking for when Passburg grub hide himself in, and may it be soon for the benefit of the rest of us who like to live honorably and without eternal strife.

Yours truly,

LAF.

The Pincher Creek hockey stars are expected here next week to give the local team a game. Come and root for the local boys.

The entertainment and social given at the church on Sunday was well attended. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

The Blairstmore boys came down from Friday night and defeated the Blairstmore intermediates. The game was a fast one from the start. The game was in charge of Billie Ruth, of Blairstmore, and his decisions were popular.

The game furnished a couple of "escape," and one of the Blairstmore lads challenged any 120-pound man in Blairstmore, if we're looking forward to a good boxing exhibition in addition to the present hockey attractions.

The carnival on Monday night was fairly well attended, most of the people coming from Passburg and most of the prizes going that way. Walter Scott, of Blairstmore, won the one-mile race for men; John Crawford the half-mile race for boys. Gus Budd won the sack race, Miss Flora Hallsworth the girls' race. The prizes for best-dressed ladies and gents went to Passburg. The committee deserves great credit for the prize put up for the different events.

It was all right

The traveller had spent the night at the station hotel, and in the morning, after a hurried breakfast, found himself in a race with time, in which to catch the train. He made a halter-skirt progress to the platform, and, as he was about to start, he had left his dispatch case, containing valises, on the dressing-table. He had no time to wait for the men's assistance, so he dashed his case into the porter's hands.

Quickly, he ran up as fast as ever you can to No. 69 and see if I had a valise. I found one, and it was on the right hand corner of the dressing-table.

He had started like lightning, and the traveller, hanging out of the carriage window, watched in hand, the valise as it was ported along the platform, and then dashed

"Yes, sir," he panted, "that's right, you're the man."

My farewell answer was occasion of the greatest enthusiasm, and I repaid the other. "Isn't it remarkable that such a large number of people should have seemed to hastened to hear you for the last time?"

WAR CRIPPLES OPERA

Many Prominent Stars are Serving in the Armies

The war is playing havoc with many opera houses, and the managers are at their wits' ends to get male singers, most of whom are serving in the army.

It is unlikely that London will have its usual opera season at Covent Garden next summer, nor will the Beacham's theatre open this year.

German impresarios are making brave attempts to carry on the opera in Berlin, but the principal tenor had to be requisitioned from the barracks and sent back to duty afterward.

Wise and merciful managers have sent their children away with words and love no less in applying to the authorities for permission to serve. Verily, this can't be used if it is absolute in closing the system.

The German government's order to recruit the army for the war is as follows:

"I. To August there will be tears, the and the great war will begin.

"In September hostilities will continue."

Ex-Mayor Harry J. Matheson, of Sentinel, was down today. He reports that at a recent meeting of the ratepayers of Sentinel, Tom Bumblebee (asphyx) was elected mayor with a majority of 11,612—one for every "iron cross" presented to Germans for successfully putting to death innocent Belgians.

T. F. Fitzgerald, who has been assistant collector of customs at Blairmore since October the 15th, has been transferred to Edmonton, and left for that point this week accompanied by Mrs. Fitzgerald, A. C. Beach, who up to the present has been preventive officer at Frank, is now stationed at Blairmore.

Cuthbert from his brother Norman, who has been in the fighting line side by side with another brother Leslie. The letter is dated December 28th, 1914, and was passed by Censor No. 622, at the army post office on December 30th. The boys state that they had a "Happy Christmas" in the trenches.

Baby Eastbrook met with a bad accident a few days ago. While playing around, she got her hand caught in the coils of a clothes wringer, the end of one finger being taken off back of the nail.

A Liberal meeting was held last week in Cowley, and J. Schneier was sent as a delegate to the convention at Macleod. We understand that those who have a vote in the next Dominion election will sustain Dr. Warnock.

It's a great thing to have a "great memory," such as the Hillcrest correspondent has, and also to have "memory" added to it. What an extraordinary memory he must have to retain rain enough to be a woman. Beauty is something Cowley's correspondent will neither get a prize, nor be hung for. It's a pity we couldn't get some such material in this burg.

Have you read about the Canadian boys at the front? The Pincher boys bravely drove back the enemy with a loss of only two and fourteen wounded. Our boys, if given a chance, will show what cloth they are made, as they did in South Africa. Mrs. Ross, daughter of Rev. David Ross, of the First Baptist church, Lethbridge, is the guest of Mrs. F. M. Pinkley.

A picture of the war was portrayed last week near Stuart street, where Councillor Lagace was bereft of several chickens. It is said that an armed force demanded an apology from the Blairmore Signal Corps for alleged breach of neutrality in appropriating and devolving several chickens—without sharing with their neighbors. The Signal corps, of course, were in a position to ignore the charge and consequently put up a strong defense. Reinforcements arrived in due time and the great log battery how occupied by the corps was strengthened with the arrival of the "recruits."

Patrols entered the log sharp at 8:30 a.m. Up to this time the former had lived up to the reputation of being losers, but fully intended to reverse their opponents a real run for the honor. Thompson's substituted two of their regulars, Mrs. Thompson and Keith having for some reason or other failed to prove satisfactorily that they were more professionals. The "recruits" had their reliable (?) originals on, and the game with the exception of a little kicking done by visitors who were either disinterested or ignorant of the real principles of hockey, was one of the best ever played in this district. Parker and March, who are conceded to be the only modern stars, pulled off numerous clever stunts; while Japan, who is also "coming up," had considerable work cut out for him in keeping track of Patton, of the "recrups." Triumphant as usual did good work assisting Wallace to defend the home goal. The "recruits" goal-keeper was in good form, and is apparently improving fast. Of the "recrups" it's scarcely fair to make any particular mention, for all are certainly good sports and are accustomed to their rights. The game ended in favor of the "recrups" with a score of 4 to 2. The game was referred to McEachern, of Blairmore, while W. Goddard acted as judge of play.

The second game pulled off was most interesting, it being evident that the star players in this team were cut out in a way that could not be for a moshroom supper, by this time observation bridges had been erected for press representatives, the most prominent of whom were George Jones, of the London Daily Mail; David Chickelbush, of The Calgary Eye Opener, and Thos. S. of the Mississauga Gazette. Each was supplied with charcoal footwarmer, for the exciting blasts from the game were such as would chill the warmest heart. The "Gos" boys set to work early and were successful in beating the Big Prohibitionist in short time. This livened things up for the "Sane," Lewis, of the "Cee" team also succeeded in breaking through the "Sane" defense but still had to meet Putnam, who in order to save his scalp caught Lewis and in coddling him forgot the puck which had speed enough to reach and enter the net. In the encounter Lewis suffered a terrible upset, standing erect on his head and whirling almost perpetually. Regaining his feet the audience smiled at a great dome arising on Lewis' temple. In the second period the Cosmopolitan made several changes, Lyons going point, Burrows goal and Lewis centre, which seemed to be an unfortunate move that would do disastrous damage. Before this period finished MacAuley, of the "Sane," made a run on the left, but was beaten by a man from Lethbridge, and was some time in recovering his facilities again. The game stood 2-2 at the end of this period.

The third period was a struggle for the winning point. Lewis again raided Putnam—but was checked by the latter, stopping both man and puck and putting the man upside down again. In order to decide the game an extra ten minutes was played in which the "Sane" added two more goals, making the score 4 to 2. McEachern acted as referee, and Livingston as judge of play.

Frank Happenings

Friday evening last was one of exceptional interest for hockey enthusiasts as well as all those interested in the great rink-gymnasium institution at Frank. Two games were on the bulletin to be played, one between Thompson's "scraps" and the "recruits," the other between the star players from the Cosmopolitan and Sanatorium hotels. In order to prevent an over-crowding of the spectators' stands an admission fee was charged, but despite this fact, every available position was occupied by visitors from Frank and neighboring towns. These games were first scheduled for Tuesday night, but owing to the great demand the rink could not be made available until Friday.

Patrols were held until Friday night, and the Sanatorium, first school ever to be opened for "beday" night, had to be closed.

Mrs. E. Kidd and M. Patterson, of the Sanatorium, spent a few days in Calgary and returned on Friday morning.

George Durmeyer, cigar manufacturer, of Fernie, was in town Wednesday and registered at the Sanatorium.

The atmosphere is quite clear now, the smoke from the recent Cosmopolitan-Sanatorium hockey game having cleared away.

Mrs. Thomas, while skating the early part of the week, had the misfortune to fall on her wrist and break it. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Frank and Bellevue met on Wednesday evening in their last game of the first series. This game should have been played on the Sanatorium, but owing to the heavy fall of snow the game had to be transferred to Frank, where wind and snow troubles are no more, a.m. at Bellevue had Hynes and Powers as new men on their team, while Frank played their regular team. The first period was lost and some good hockey was witnessed. At the end of this period the game stood 2-2. In the second and third periods Bellevue seemed to drop off considerably, Thomas giving Scott no opportunity whatever. Powers, of Bellevue, worked himself through on several occasions and seemed as though he would score each time, but failed to pull off a full advantage of his well-worked runs. Frank put in three goals in each of the second and third periods, winning by 8 to 4. The game was referred to Walter Scott, of Bellevue, McTyrone acting as judge of play.

Rev. Mr. Hart, of Hillcrest, who is goal keeper for the junior hockey team there, was in town this week taking pointers from March's recruits. March is contemplating a trip to the Old Country his wife and team and thinks he will make it pay.

Now that Frank and Coleman have tied in the first series, arrangements will be made immediately for these two teams to play off to decide which team shall represent this district in the Alberta Hockey Association. We hope to see Frank victorious when the different districts play off.
